

Gwent Police Child Centred Policing

Protecting and putting you first

Gwent Police have made a promise to put children and young people first and treat them with respect whenever they meet them in the community.

Gwent Police promise to:

Build stronger relationships between Gwent Police and children and young people.

Improve the chances of young people who are involved in crime by working with services to help them stay away from crime in the future.

Help make sure children are not being drawn into a life of crime.

Support children who have been affected by crime, such as child abuse, stealing and drug dealing.

Gwent Police will do this by:

Building trust
Every time a police officer meets a child or young person, they will get the chance to build trust.

Getting more training
Officers and staff will receive lots of training to understand some of the reasons why a child is behaving in a certain way and will work with other services to provide support at the earliest chance.

Listening
Police officers will listen to and respect the voice of every child that they meet, including children from different backgrounds, to help understand the issues that affect their lives.

Working with you
The views of children and young people will be used to help shape the services and actions of Gwent Police in the future.

Plismona sy'n Canolbwyntio ar y Plentyn Heddlu Gwent

Eich diogelu a'ch rhoi chi'n gyntaf

Gwella cyfleoedd pobl ifanc sy'n troseddu drwy weithio gyda gwasanaethau i'w helpu i gadw draw o droseddu yn y dyfodol.

Cefnogi plant sydd wedi cael eu heffeithio gan droseddau, fel cam-drin plant, dwyn a delio cyffuriau.

Gwrando
Bydd swyddogion yr heddlu yn gwrando ar lais pob plentyn y maen nhw'n ei gyfarfod ac yn ei barchu, gan gynnwys plant o wahanol gefndiroedd, i helpu i ddeall y materion sy'n effeithio ar eu bywydau.

Gweithio gyda chi
Defnyddir barn plant a phobl ifanc i helpu i lunio gwasanaethau a gweithredoedd Heddlu Gwent yn y dyfodol.
