OFFICE OF POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER OFFICE OF THE CHIEF CONSTABLE

TITLE: Gifts and Hospitality

DATE: 7th June 2018

TIMING: Routine

1.

PURPOSE: For Consideration

RECOMMENDATION

1.1 The recommendation is to consider the content of this report.

2. INTRODUCTION & BACKGROUND

2.1 In April 2012 the Association of Chief Police Officers published guidance on gifts, gratuities and hospitality which provided police officers and staff with an ethical framework in which to determine the boundaries of acceptability concerning gifts and hospitality. The Gwent Police procedure has been developed in accordance with this guidance to ensure police officers and staff understand how the acceptance of gifts or hospitality can undermine personal and professional integrity and to reinforce the importance of preventing allegations of corrupt practices or improper relationships with any member of the public or corporate body arising from the offer or acceptance of any gift, gratuity or hospitality.

All police officers and members of police staff are required to notify the Chief Constable of all offers of gifts, gratuities and hospitality and await authorisation for acceptance. This includes all chief officers.

3. ISSUES FOR CONSIDERATION

3.1 The purpose of this report is to provide an overview of the number and type of gifts, gratuities and hospitality offered to and accepted by Gwent police officers and staff in the last 12 months. The register is subject to audit by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary.

The register of all gifts and hospitality is maintained by the Professional Standards Department and the overview summary of the register for April 1st 2017 to March 31st 2018 including those to Chief Officers is provided in Annex 1.

It will be clear that the majority of gifts consistently fall into the categories of low value consumable goods such as confectionary and small quantities of alcohol and such information suggests that there is minimal risk of corruption or bribery to the organisation by these means. The less tangible benefits such as hospitality are further evidence of the low risk of corruption at all ranks, including chief officer for whom this category of gratuity is the most common type.

4. NEXT STEPS

4.1 The registers are maintained as normal business practice, reviewed by the Head of Professional Standards and monitored by the Risk Assessment and Joint Tasking forum. Furthermore, analysis of the register is reviewed by the Police and Crime een created d under the against any ined in the ined in the in preparing ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, in preparing ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, Department ne Gifts and ith Business

in preparing ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, Department ne Gifts and ith Business ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, Department ne Gifts and ith Business sks.
ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, Department ne Gifts and ith Business sks.
ion from the s, Corporate to monitor a of corruption, Department ne Gifts and ith Business sks.